TO BALLOT ON HONOR CONSTITUTION PLAN

Faculty Committee Meets to Decide Exact Date for Vote.

MANY AMENDMENTS MADE

Changes in Last Year's Document Expected to be Beneficial—Consistent of Adoption.

What has become of the Honor Constitution? Is the question on the lips of everyone on the campus. It has been tracked to its lair; it is in the hands of the Faculty Honor Committee of which Prof. Croissant is chairman.

Several weeks ago the Student Council passed the Constitution and it was approved by the faculty, but then it disappeared. With all the clouds of anamosty floating over the campus in regard to the Ku Klux Klan, the Honor Constitution was set aside. Now that it has no objectionable competition, it will be pushed to a final decision of whether the Student Body agrees with the aforesaid organizations and pass on this particular constitution.

This constitution is amended from the previous one of 1922. The Constitution presented in 1922 failed on account of the lack of interest on the part of the students and certain objectionable features.

The Constitution is to be presented to the University at large through the Registrar's office. All students will be qualified to vote, and votes will be checked as they vote against the enrollment.

Dean Rose will have complete charge of the voting. There will be no stuffing of the ballot box. The Faculty Committee will meet soon to decide on a definite date to present this to the students.

A CORRECTION

The list of the members of Girls' Basketball awarded letters by the Student Council April 3, was incorrectly given in the April 6 issue of The Hatchet. The list should have read as follows: Letters in basketball were awarded to: Elizabeth Chickering, Margaret Bowie, Alice Terrill, Margery Carruthers, Mary Bixler, Helen Hastings, Katherine Wright, Beatrice Woodford, and Margaret Brewer, manager. Numerals were awarded to: Marguerite Daly, assistant manager, Esther Eckert, Daisy Robison, Nelda Umbeck, and Alice Heyl.

ASKS FOR DELTA TAU DELTA MEDAL MENTIONS

Awarded to Senior Who Has Been the Most Active in Student Activities.

Elmer L. Kayser, chairman of the committee for awarding the Delta Tau Delta activity award, has asked that all nominations for this prize be handed in on or before May 1.

This award, a gold medal, is given by the Gamma Eta chapter of the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity to that member of the Senior Class who has been most active in University activities. It is a reward for the constructive work directed toward the building up of the University ideals and standards.

The committee for determining the winner is made up of Elmer L. Kayser, chairman; Bryan Morse, and Prof. H. G. Doyle. Announcement of the winner will be on the programs of the June Convocation.

SETS DATE FOR G. W. PLAYS

Final plans for the G. W. spring play are almost completed. The date has been set for the last Friday and Saturday of April. The plays which will be given are "Suppressed Desires," "Moonshine," and "Where But in America."

The following students have been chosen for the cast: For "Suppressed Desires," Henrietta Brewster, Beatrice Henning, Stephen Brewster, Louis Selbold, Mable Louise Espey.

For "Moonshine," Revanue Officer, "Curley" Edwards; Moonshiner, Meador Wright.

For "Where But in America," Molly, Sarah Fry; Bob, James Smithwick; Hilda, Louise Bannerman.

The play will be held in the chapel. Admission will be 50 cents.

TO DEBATE SWARTHMORE

The George Washington Varsity debating team, composed of J. Leverance, A. H. Moran, and William E. Reese, will uphold the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, That allied debts be cancelled, provided a substantial reduction is made in German reparations," this evening when they meet the negative team of Swarthmore College.

The debate will be held in the Auditorium of the Franklin School at Thirteenth and K Streets, starting promptly at 8 p. m.

HATCHETITES OPPOSE C. U. IN TRACK MEET

Close Competition Expected in Saturday's Events—Coach Probey Has Been Training Men Hard.

The G. W. track squad will meet the Catholic University squad in a dual meet Saturday, April 14, in the first outdoor track meet of the season. The meet will begin at 3.30 p. m., and will be conducted in the Central High School Stadium. No admission fee will be charged. It is expected that a number of students will be out to see the squad in action.

Catholic University has had a successful season in basketball and is starting out well in baseball. She expects to win in track from G. W. Saturday. The G. W. squad, however, expects to give them a hard struggle and come away with the long end of the point score, as Coach Probey has been putting the men through some hard training.

The 100, 220, and 440-yard dashes, the 880 and mile runs, the high and low hurdles, the high and broad jump, the pole vault, discus throw, javelin throw, and shot put compose the list of events on the program for Saturday, and much competition is expected in every one of them.

LAW JUNIORS MAKE FINAL ARRANGEMENTS

Big Celebrations Planned—Reestablishing Custom of Previous Years. Second Affair of Year.

The Junior Class of Law School has completed final arrangements for their spring dance to be held in the Gold Room of the Hotel Lafayette, from 9 until 12, on Monday, April 16th. An invitation has been extended to the entire school to be present, and complimentary tickets have been given to the Law School Faculty to attend as guests of the class.

The Juniors, in holding this dance, are reestablishing in the school a custom that once prevailed, to have a spring entertainment taken charge of by the Junior Class, where the entire Law School celebrates as a body.

This is the second large social event put on by the Law School, the other being the Annual Banquet, and it is hoped to make this as great a success as was the banquet.

Officers Place Approval.

Hugo A. Kemman, chairman of the committee in charge, has secured Jacoby's Orchestra, which has been selected to play for the Shriners' Ball in June, and is endeavoring to have the Glee Club put on a few selections of their own.

Officers of the Senior and Freshman Classes have placed their approval on this school function and have suggested that the whole student body back it up to a man.

If a sufficient number of tickets are sold before the 16th of April, the large ball room will be hired to accommodate the gathering.

Tickets may be secured from any member of the Junior Class.

GIRLS GLEE CLUB TO GIVE ANNUAL CONCERT APR. 24

The Girls Glee Club will hold its annual concert on April 24, at 8 o'clock, at Epiphany Hall, on G Street between Thirteenth and Fourteenth Streets.

The program has not yet been fully arranged, but dances, costume songs, solos, and unique features are promised.

Mrs. Sweet is directing the Girls Glee Club this year, and it has made great progress.

Admission will be fifty cents.

A. J. JACKSON WINS DAVIS PRIZE AWARD

Bartholomew's "What G. W. Needs," Takes Second Honors; Mears Places Third.

G. W. PROBLEMS DISCUSSED

Advocates Greater Interest in Student Activities—President Hodgkins Presiding Officer of Contest.

Tuesday night, April 10, the seventy-sixth annual Davis prize speaking contest, was held in Lisner Hall.

The Davis prizes were founded in Columbian College by Hon. Isaac Davis of Massachusetts, in 1847. The original endowment was five hundred dollars, "proceeds of which will afford three premiums, in cash or gold medals, of the value of five dollars, of ten dollars, and of fifteen dollars annually—these premiums, or prizes, to be distributed annually to such members of the Senior Class as shall have made the greatest progress in elocution since their connection with the College."

Marked For Composition.

These orations are first read separately by each member of the committee and are marked for quality of composition. They are afterwards marked by each member of the committee for effectiveness in delivery. Composition and delivery are given equal weight in the award. After the contest the committee in conference determines upon the award of the prizes, and this award is announced at the close of the exercises.

The committee on the awards were Prof. R. F. Griggs, Assistant Professor Thomas C. Lavery, Assistant Professor Robert W. Holwell, President Howard L. Hodgkins presided.

Urges Activity Interest.

The winning speakers were Albert J. Jackson, "The Background of America," first; Wilmer T. Bartholomew, "What G. W. Needs," second; and Kirk Mears, "America's Supreme Obligations," third.

Jackson in the winning speech showed that America has had romantic background. The story of the Mayflower, the leading men of history and the country's ideals were used to illustrate that America has had a background worthy of the name.

In the address which won second place, Wilmer T. Bartholomew showed that the greatest need of the University is greater interest in student activities.

SPANISH CLUB ANNOUNCES PRIZE ESSAY COMPETITION

Dean Henning, Profs. Doyle and Jones Compose Local Committee to Award Prize.

El Circulo de Espanol has announced that a prize winning contest will be held throughout the United States under the direction of the Instituto de Los Espanos of New York City. The subject for the essays will be the "Life and Works of Don Miguel Cervantes de Saavedra."

Each university will award a bronze medal to the best essay handed in and these in turn will be sent to the Instituto de Los Espanos in New York City. To the best of these prize winning essays this institution will award another prize.

The committee for choosing the best essay of the George Washington University students is made up of Dean Henning, chairman; Prof. Doyle, secretary; Prof. Jones. The essays must be handed in before April 16.

MASONS HOLD MEETING

The George Washington University Masonic Club held its regular monthly meeting last Wednesday evening, at the Gavel Club rooms, 719 Thirteenth Street N. W.

At this meeting the newly elected officers were installed by the Advisory Board. The new officers are: President, Paul W. Hammock; vice presidents, W. A. Sequist, Engineering College; A. E. Eddins, Columbian College; Edwin Brooker, Law School; V. A. De Potter, Teachers' College; E. L. White, School of Graduate Studies; secretary, Henry H. James; treasurer, Sol Friedman; and herald, R. B. Harding.

APPOINTS RING COMMITTEE

The Juniors have decided to obtain their Class Rings at an early date, in fact much earlier than classes generally purchase their rings. The Juniors have been impressed with the fact that the Seniors are just placing their orders for rings and that there is doubt whether they will be received and worn before graduation.

The following committee was appointed last week to consider the matter and to obtain estimates: Edwin S. Bettleheim, Jr., chairman; Francis W. Brown, Dale Hoffman, Marion Bailey, J. Fuller Spoerri, Arthur Rosenlund, and Henry James.

'PETTICOAT' CREATES SENSATION AT DANCE

Greek Co-eds' Party Big Success—Attractive and Novel Program Feature.

The eleven sororities of George Washington University and the Greek-letter women of the city last night held their annual Pan-Hellenic dance at Wardman Park Inn. The dance was attended by approximately one hundred and eighty couples. President and Mrs. Hodgkins and the Deans and their wives, as well as professors, were among the patrons and patronesses.

From 9 o'clock, when the music started, until 12.30, Deans and students alike stepped to tunes of Meyer-Davis' Orchestra. Attractive and novel programs were given out. There were leather card cases, which held the programs, for the charming ladies, and bill folds for the young men.

At 12.30 the Petticoat, a satirical sheet, published by Gamma Eta Zeta, the women's journalistic fraternity of George Washington University, made its first appearance. Every one was excited and the ball room was filled with laughter when the paper was scanned by the dancers.

The dance ended all too soon, for everyone had a perfectly lovely time. Thanks to the Greek-letter damsels.

PYRAMID SOCIETY HOLDS INITIATION

President Hodgkins Gives His Position on Student Activities at Banquet Which Follows.

Eight men, two from the faculty and six students, were initiated into Pyramid Honor Society Monday evening, April 9. The initiation was followed by a banquet at the Hotel Lafayette.

Those taken into the society were Hugh Miller, Dean of the Engineering School, Prof. Charles S. Collier, Halory Tolson, Robt. H. McNeill, Francis W. Brown, Felix Altrup, Howard Shaw, and Bernard Viers.

President Howard L. Hodgkins was the speaker of honor at the banquet and gave an instructive address on his position in relation to student activities. He is opposed to the compulsory activity tax at this time, but in favor of the student activities when they do not conflict with the curriculum of the University.

DENIES KLAN STORY

To the Faculty and Students of the George Washington University:

In view of the false impression probably created by the article appearing in the Washington Post of April 5, regarding my opinions on the institution of the Ku Klux Klan in George Washington University, I wish to state publicly that this was a misinterpretation on the part of a representative of that paper who called me Wednesday night.

Although I had seen several posters regarding the discussion of the order by one of the recognized University societies, and of an address on the subject (and it was this that I told the reporter), the first I knew of the alleged inception was seeing my name listed among the signers of the petition which appeared in the Post on April 4.

—C. Melville Walker.

The conditions of the award are: An annual prize is offered by the Phi Mu Fraternity for a one-act play of approved excellence written by a student in the University. This K K K Joke

Now that the heat of discussion has disappeared and the matter can be looked upon somewhat more dispassionately, let us consider this Ku Klux Klan affair.

The whole matter was given birth by a collection of would-be intellectuals whose aim of life has been to grasp every topic which has the least tang of radicalism and discuss it and harangue over it and try to appear to understand it. The most publicity it may give them, the better are they satisfied. This seems to be their highest ambition—and what an ambition it is!

The whole matter would be pathetic if they did not take themselves seriously. Their evident pride in their "radicalism" causes them instead to be laughable. They discuss those things that are over their heads, they pretend to understand those matters that are far above them, and they waste their time upon discussions that are not worthy of the effort.

Is this the ultimate aim of the American educational institution? Does it not seem that the American university founded upon conservative ideals has developed to an extent and value of service that would seem to prove the soundness of this conception? It has been the policy and contention of our greatest educators that education should be concerned with those principles that have been found sound through long experience. These men are capable of selecting these sane principles without the assistance of notoriety seeking students whose bad judgement causes them to raise their own ideas above those of their intellectual superiors.

This sort of poppy-cock has no place among sane people and the best way to rid ourselves of it is to treat it as the joke which it truly is. The very conceit evidenced by their attitude make them ludicrous to an extreme.

The allegation of a campus Klan chapter is but another "nifty." That those students named as members should ally themselves with such a childish masquerade society is too ludicrous to discuss. Such a charge, however, is a thing that might be expected from the organization that brought it to light. The whole affair deserves not space upon the front page of a newspaper but would be more appropriate in the columns of the extinct "Ghost" or as the product of the fertile imagination of our own "Stupid Steve."

Get Good Leaders

Plans for next year must be laid now in order to avoid the mistake made in Student Activities last season. Through unfortunate circumstances and lack of real leadership the subscription to the student activity fund was not a success. In fact it was so poorly subscribed to, that every activity had its budget cut anywhere from twenty to fifty per cent.

If student activities at George Washington are to be continued and to expand, the tax campaign must be put over big next year. The best way to insure the success of this movement is by securing the best leadership possible.

Under the present system of governing the student activities, the Student Council is vested with the power and responsibility of conducting this campaign. As leadership is in a large measure responsible for the success or failure of a campaign, ones willing to work, must be placed on the Council.

In less than three weeks we must decide who are to be placed on the Council. Shall we pick men who are interested in their University, its interests and its activities or shall we elect men whose sole interest is in themselves and their cliques?

THE SPY

By William S. Becker.

President.

The Presidents continue another week with "Six Cylinder Love," the comedy of domestic bliss versus the automobile. The play is the product of the imagination of William Antony McGuire, and has proved a success everywhere it has been shown. From present indications a long run at the President seems assured.

Garrick.

George Marshall seems to have pulled the Garrick out of the rut with "Getting Gertie's Garter." The play is of the usual Hopwood style, with the plot revolving around an elusive garter. Edwin Trusheim pursues the garter and the entire company does good work. A second week seems assured.

National.

The frame of photographs from "The Perfect Fool," which we have gazed upon so long in the mezzanine of the National has finally been moved out front and announces that this hilarious musical comedy will be on display next week beginning Sunday night. Ed Wynn features the show and carries the comedy burden upon capable shoulders. He is surrounded by a cast of attractive girls and others, and the result is a real treat. "The Perfect Fool" is well worth seeing.

Poll's.

A new deviation from the usual theatrical scheme is to be tried at Poll's next week beginning Monday night. The American National Theatre, an organization headed by Augustus Thomas, czar of the legitimate stage, brings Shakespeare's "As You Like It" to our village. Instead of featuring one star the cast is made up exclusively of stars headed by the beautiful Marjorie Rambeau. The production was staged by Robert Milton.

This Week.

President: William Antony McGuire's "Six Cylinder Love" featuring Wanda Lyon and George Barnes. Clever and entertaining comedy.

National: "It Is The Law," strong melo-drama by Elmer Rice. Full of thrills and featuring two murders.

Poll's: Al Jolson, Washington boy, in "Bombo," a musical show in the approved Jolson manner. Not as fine as expected, but still very good, due to the work of "America's greatest entertainer."

Garrick: George Marshall's stock production of Hopwood's "Getting Gertie's Garter." Fast racy farce for the lovers of Hopwood.

Belasco: "The Demi-Virgin," another Hopwood farce. A strip poker game for the ladies of the cast is the chief comedy situation. Hazel Dawn leads the company.

AN OPEN LETTER

In fairness the following letter is published.

The Editor.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 9, 1923.
Editor The Hatchet,
G. W. University.

Dear Sir: You have inferred in your editorial of April 6th that the Free Lance Club was instrumental in bringing the matter of the Ku Klux Klan incident at G. W. U. to the attention of the local papers. This attitude shows a sublime ignorance of the whole affair. Before making such an accusation as this, why do you not inform yourself of the facts of the case?

In the Washington Times of April 3rd, there was a notice saying that large posters in the halls of G. W. U. displayed the fact that there would be a meeting on Tuesday night, at which the K. K. K. issue would be discussed. Now, isn't it just possible that the reporters who were there that evening noticed the announcement in the afternoon papers?

The Free Lance Club has repeatedly denied that it had any connection with the regrettable affair of April 3rd, and

Stupid Steve's Kolum

Disillusionment.

Eddie Pardoe's faith in everything is busted. He found out this past Easter that there is no such a thing as an Easter Bunny. He had so much faith in that Bunny, too.

Crazy Curan is very cheerful. He makes known his thoughts thusly: "As I look and see the buds budding, I realize that spring is here and summer is not far distant, and that time will soon be with me when I can eat corn as well as drink it."

The George Washington Campus, with the State, War, and Navy Building at one end and the Gas House at the other. Rather fitting, ay what!

Is it true, what I hear, that Snooks Leebly is going to buy one of those trailers for his little red bug?

One of the best things about the Interfraternity Prom was that there was only one stag present from the University. And he was a little more than we cared for.

With this issue of the Ax., Stupid Steve wakes up. Credit it to spring if you wish. There is no secrecy as to who the editor of this terrible column now is, and if you read your name, coupled along-side of a dirty dig, just put it down as so much publicity, and let it go at that.

—Stupidisky Steveisky.

* There may not be any members of the Ku Klux Klan here at George W., but Oh, Boy, there are many, many members of the Coo Coo Clan.

Can't let this issue go by without saying something about that candy the co-eds were selling on the campus Monday.

There is really only one thing that could be said about it. All those who ate some are saying it—those who are able.

The Federal Road Commission would give them some real money for the formula they used in making that candy.

We call it candy for the want of a better name.

Better luck next time. You forgot to put in the yeast, or else too much varnish. You'll make it better next time, won't you? It's a cinch you couldn't make it worse.

Yet we are openly assailed in The Hatchet for propagating the whole incident.

You advise "that radical discussions be controlled." It is conceivable that an organization holding slightly different views from those of the editor of The Hatchet might not be a dangerous thing, to be exposed to the merciless fire of an editorial outbreak.

Rest assured that the Free Lance Club, as well as other campus organizations is working for the uplift of the University. Possibly a different kind of uplift from some of the more popular social activities, but yet it strives to bring to the University a few things of intellectual interest as well as the habitual commonplaces.

Let me assure you again, that the Free Lance Club had absolutely nothing to do with the names of the forty-six purported Klansmen being published. We are cooperating in every way to bring to light the author of this nefarious act.

Yours for the truth,

FRED H. WRIGHT,
President, Free Lance Club.

RACQUETERS OPPOSE NAVY AT ANNAPOLIS

Six Men to Make Trip—To Be Selected
From Eleven Candidates.

G. W.'s tennis team will journey over to Annapolis this Saturday to play the Navy racqueters. Regular practice has been held since the Columbia match and the men are about ready to meet the Midshipmen.

Coach Miller will probably select six men to make the trip and they will take the 2.30 p. m. car Saturday afternoon. A ranking of eleven men has been posted and others will be ranked as soon as they show sufficient form or beat any of those ranked in three out of five sets. The system of challenges is still in operation and the candidates are still fighting for places on the squad.

Following is the list of eleven candidates on the squad: 1, Van Ende; 2, Law; 3, Ballinger; 4, Aten; 5, Klopsch; 6, Kellher; 7, Rutley; 8, Pitts; 9, Baum; 10, Fowler; 11, Boyd.

Any of these named above may be displaced or lowered before the selection is made for the Annapolis trip, but in all probability the first six given in the ranking will make the jaunt.

ART STUDENTS VISIT N. Y.

A number of art students of George Washington University and their friends went with Dr. G. R. Brigham on an excursion to New York City Saturday night.

After going through the Columbia University grounds, they all attended the morning services in the unfinished Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

Most of the afternoon was spent in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. After viewing the Egyptian exhibits, the students visited the picture galleries, which are especially rich in the works of the Dutch artists. The paintings of the old masters were specially stressed, and many pictures by Raphael, Memling, Holbein, Velasquez, and others were noted. The English portrait school and modern painters, particularly those of America, were taken up.

Those present were: Dr. G. R. Brigham and Miss Hattie Brigham, Eva B. Street, Catherine Brackett, Louise and Helen Williams, Mary H. Watkins, June and Gertrude Bergman, Vera E. and Bessie K. Lacy, Enola H. Newhouser, Isabel Sawyer, Hazel Tackwell, Leafy M. Weadon, Amy D. Putnam, Emily A. Thour, Dorothy Gilbert, Mrs. E. A. Gleason, Mary E. Snyder, Bessie Jane Porter, Isabelle Smith, George I. Higgins, and Clara Wiseman.

SPORT NOTES

Two big college nines from Lexington, Va., Washington and Lee and V. M. I. met defeat on the diamond recently. Cornell conquered V. M. I. 9 to 1, and Virginia defeated W. & L. 14 to 12.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain-elect of Harvard Varsity eleven for 1923, puts in 13 hours of study each day at this time of the year and attains an average of four A's and one B. During football season he studies as much as possible and gets in bed at 10.30 every night.

G. W.'s rifle men made a good showing in the intercollegiate matches held at New Haven, Conn., by finishing in third place. Pennsylvania won with 3,167; Penn State, 2nd, 3,145; George Washington, 3rd, 3,135; Norwich, 4th, 3,088; California, 5th, 3,067; Princeton, 6th, 3,046; Syracuse, 7th, 3,046; Yale, 8th, 3,034.

An intercollegiate polo tournament is to be played at New York between the dates of May 3 and 16. The first round schedule has been announced as follows: May 3, Harvard vs. Norwich; May 4, Yale vs. Cornell; May 5, West Point vs. V. M. I.; May 8, Princeton vs. Pennsylvania.

Passaic (N. J.) High School basketball team, undefeated in 118 games, depends largely on overhead passing for field goals and victories.

The Olympic games for 1932 have been awarded to Los Angeles. This date was first available for the United States because the 1924 games go to Paris and the 1928 games go to Amsterdam.

Maryland University's lacrosse team defeated Lehigh by the score of 9 to 3, at Bethlehem, Pa., last Saturday. There are a number of former District High School athletes playing with the Maryland "Twelve."

C. U. Freshmen recently defeated Eastern High's baseball team by the score of 9 to 5. Eastern seems to have a good defensive team, making only two errors, but they are not so good when it comes to hitting.

THE TEA-HOUND

We understand that Tommy Lodge, one of the Kappa Sig prodigals, is going to play soldier over in the Supreme Court instead of the Police Court. Wonder what the Kappy Sigs will do for help after their next banquet.

The newspapers report a tidal wave in the Potomac last Saturday. Henry James admitted that he had fallen overboard. Now we wonder—

Len Hall seems to be putting "Color" in his dramatic reviews. Next he will be selling lamp-black for face powder.

It is rumored that Bill Becker recently caused a near panic in Reed's Cafeteria. Two things that Bill can do better than anything else—spill dramatics on the campus and coffee on young ladies in restaurants.

Heard at Martha Dunham's playground when Martha returned to duty after a short vacation: "Oh, what did you come back for? We were having such a good time with your nice substitute." Too young to show the usual appreciation.

Kampus Kat Kaught C. Melville Walker making another apology. Yes? No? Why?

Earle Manson should make a most adorable "Queen of the May."

We're a little timid about mentioning Forest Stout after our last calling down, but must say if he doesn't stop cutting friends on F Street we'll hand him a brown derby.

What's this we hear about Douglas Clephane taking chances? Both in and out of school.

We think Bob Pulliam ought to be able to draw up a good set of parliamentary rules of procedure.

Caroline Peterson is taking up art, with the Hatchet office as her studio and Jimmie James her model. Henry has long been recognized as a model young man.

Cal Calhoun (no, that's not stuttering), testifies that he does not stay out late, is not a Tea Hound, does not drink liquor, at least not corn, and swears he didn't get his hair marcelled at a beauty shop. We doubt the latter.

Would you know all about the art of wearing tight shoes and a grin at the same time? Ask Alpha Booth. She knows.

G. W. ENGINEERS NOSE OUT WESTERN TEAM

Hatchettes Comb Opposing Pitchers
for Sixteen Hits—Loose Fielding Mars Contest.

G. W.'s Engineers opened their 1923 baseball season with a 10 to 9 victory over the strong Western High School nine, on the Hilltop Diamond last Saturday afternoon. Although some loose fielding was done by both teams, Coach Cruikshanks seems to have a fairly good team that should do more than hold its own with other opponents.

Biggins and Maytum pitched for the Hatchettes and only seven hits were made from their offerings. Western will have to show a decided punch with bat if it expects to capture the High School title.

GIRLS' RIFLE TEAM BEATS SYRACUSE CO-EDS 476-474

Match Conducted By Telegraph—
Used Army Rifle in Firing.

Two points was the deciding margin between the score of the G. W. girls and the Syracuse girls rifle team. The unofficial score as exchanged by telegraph as announced at first gave the victory to Syracuse by the score of 478 to 475. Later, when the official score was given out it gave the victory to the Hatchette team 476 to 474.

Conditions of the match required the use of the Government issued rifle, which is not well adapted for fine target shooting, so the scores were not as high as have been made in previous matches with special target rifles. Nevertheless the team performed with splendid consistency and deserved its victory.

The individual scores follow:

| Sophia Waldman | 95 |
| Edna Kilpatrick | 95 |

PRESIDENT HODGKINS' KLAN STATEMENT

University in Support of American Principles—List Considered Joke.

There has been published in the local papers a statement in regard to a meeting of students of the George Washington University, which was held Tuesday night, at which were read certain papers alleged to give the attitude of the Ku Klux Klan in regard to a proposed honor system now under consideration by the student body, and giving a list of names of students alleged to be members, or about to become members of the Klan.

University rules require that application to hold a meeting in the University buildings must be made to the Registrar, and it has been found that the meeting on Tuesday night was held without permission, and as yet it has not been ascertained who were responsible for arranging for this unauthorized meeting.

Many of the students whose names
appeared on the alleged list of Klan members have seen the President of the University or have sent messages to him denying in strong terms the statement that they are present or prospective members of the Klan. Eighteen persons on the list are not students in the University this year, but all have been students at some time;
at least two are foreigners, and several are Catholics. These facts give some support to the theory that the whole matter was intended as a joke.

A very detailed investigation is being conducted to determine all the facts in the case.

In the University are many student organizations—literary, social, fraternal, and religious. The University encourages organizations of that kind.

The University is outspoken in support of American principles and ideals.
It works for the observance of law and the upholding of religion. It will not for a moment tolerate any organization or any propaganda that seeks to overthrow the law, or to substitute for the law, the rule of any band or organization that does not recognize and support the law.

It is believed that the Ku Klux Klan is a secret organization that proposes to substitute its own rules for the law of the land.

The University will not permit such an organization to have a Chapter in the University. In this view the students and faculties are unanimous.
Should registered students attempt to form such an organization, prompt and drastic action will be taken by the University authorities.

Louise.

Mile and Two Mile Relay Events.

George Washington will be represented by a track squad in the American Legion games to be held at Central High School Stadium on April 21, and though the team has been working under unfavorable conditions, it is believed the members will give a good account of themselves in this meet.
It is probable that G. W. will also be matched in mile and two-mile relay races.

Coach Probeby conducted tryouts
last Sunday morning in several events.
Next Sunday morning, April 15, tryouts will be held on the Georgetown Field at 10 o'clock for other Legion

on hand at that time.

Daily training is held at 7 p. m., at hour.

PLAN LAW ALUMNI MIXER

The annual meeting of the Law School Association will be held at the

A short business session will pre-
